Partnership Vision

Working together to secure the best possible outcomes for children, in line with the culture and diversity that exist within each school.

Leaders will support and empower each other to ensure no school is left behind.

We will be relentless in our mission to enable each school to set high expectations for all, ensuring these expectations are met.

What an incredible year this has been. Thank you to everyone who has supported our journey. Staff across our schools have worked incredibly hard to support each other, ensuring no school has been left behind.

From September 2021, Zenia McIntosh will be the new Acting Head of School for Stockwell, covering Mr Morton's 1 year sabbatical leave.

It is great that we are in a position to grow our own, offering promotions for staff within our family of schools. Without the risk of losing some very valuable skills. It is a great achievement that we are in a position to support the smooth transition of a role at such a senior level. Our newly established Hard Federation has undoubtedly made this possible.

Through some of our challenges, we have all said goodbye to loved staff members over the course of the year, and we wish them all the very best, on their new journey's.

Deep Dives

We conducted deep dives of our curriculum by looking at children's work from across our schools. The aim was to monitor the standards of teaching, learning and the consistency of pupils standards.

The Art Project

Across the partnership, we looked at the work of three Black British Artists, re-creating their artistic styles. Each school in the partnership has gifted their canvas to each other. We had a special assembly where the gifted art piece was revealed to each school. The children were very excited to receive an art piece from each other that will be displayed in the schools.
