

Extreme Reading Competition World Book Day Thursday 6th March 2025

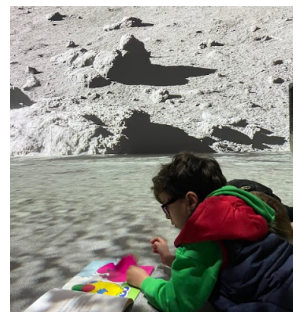

Where is the most interesting place you have ever read a book?

Whether it is up a tree or on top of a mountain, we want your photos! Your challenge is to take a picture of yourself reading somewhere extreme (but safe) and send it in to school by Tuesday 4th March. We are doing this as part of the school's celebration of World Book Day which is on Thursday 6th March 2025 this year.

We will run a competition for the most extreme places reading has taken place; a display will also be made from the photos.

We are really looking forward to seeing who in school has such a passion for reading that they have to do it anywhere and everywhere! Why not get your parents and carers involved by taking a picture of them whilst extreme reading?

Here are some ideas to get your reading juices flowing!

Extreme reading ideas:

- in a museum, art gallery, or shopping centre
- on a trampoline
- in the wardrobe
- on a swing
- with a pet/animal
- in the dentist's waiting room
- at the beach
- on a climbing frame (hanging upside down?!)
- underground (e.g. tube station)
- in a tent or home-made fort
- in the rain (using an umbrella of course!)
- in the garden shed
- at the top of a hill
- halfway up the stairs!

We can't wait to see your pictures! Good luck everyone!

Many thanks for your continued support.
